The defendant and the victim, both teenagers, were scuffling.
The victim had the advantage in the scuffle, and had kept the defendant's head held down on a table. They separated, and the victim struck the defendant. The defendant stepped away to his work bench, pulled out a knife, and then went back stabbing the victim. Defense argued that because of the defendant's age and because of the "lack of intent to commit a felony" - murder charges do not fit.

Defendant & Victim were inmates at the Berkley House. The evening before incident happened, the two men argued over the path of a book the victim was reading. They argued the next morning at breakfast, with defendant striking victim in face.
Victim left to get shaved.

In pleading with victim to not get the shaved, defendant was holding victim when victim collapsed, and died the next day. Victim had a bad heart.
Coroner reported that victim may have been injured, but with his heart condition, the altercation and blow would have been enough to excite the diseased heart to failure.

On Monday May 6 & Tuesday May 7
There were riots in the Kensington Area. Defendant lived there during Riot. Defendant was seen discharging his guns. Victim was shot. Some as well as defendant claim defendant to have been in firing range of victim, witness victim was shot. Also defense argued that members of a community may defend their homes during periods of rioting, such that even if the chance existed shot victim, then defendant was still innocent.

Giles went to the room of Julia Ashmore. She ordered him out. Webb and his daughter occupied a nearby apartment and also told Giles to get out. Several witnesses then saw Giles fall headlong from the upper landing. It was not known if he was pushed or if it was an accident. (It was initially alleged that he was pushed but later case was abandoned due to lack of evidence).
